

YOUNG_general model description_NEW
DESIGN BY ROSSI&CO

Young is Stosa's offering for a dynamic, smart and trendy target customer who prefers a minimalist style, and seeks out avant-garde colour combinations with an urban feel. This kitchen stands out for its design, with sharp, linear geometric shapes that are enhanced by innovative details, such as the door with integrated Step handle, the wall unit with curved door and the open compartments that serve as connecting elements.

As is the case with all Stosa kitchens, Young offers real flexibility, allowing it to be combined with other Stosa models, thus providing a truly vast range of design options. Young is characterised by its capacity to remain current and vibrant: the range of colours and finishes delivers unique combinations, satisfying the desires of a bold customer who is eager to get ahead of the trend. Available finishes include wood, laminates with stone effect and single-colour finishes, with the possibility of integrating innovative curved wall units into the design. The doors provided with this kitchen include the square model and the Step, with an integrated handle that makes opening the door quick and easy, thus facilitating the use of the kitchen day to day.
